

Samuel A. Monastra, CPA has more than 20 years of experience in public accounting and advises businesses regarding financial reporting issues with a particular emphasis on Revenue Recognition, IASB/ FASB Convergence, IFRS, Business Combinations, Asset Impairments, and Financial Statement Disclosures.

Mr. Monastra has maintained a full service accounting practice, representing clients principally in the Mid-Atlantic Region. Having served in executive roles with KPMG and Crowe Horwath, his focus is on public and private sector companies in the manufacturing and service industries. This focus has expanded to include the life sciences and technology sectors whose particular issues regarding revenue recognition, business combinations, valuation and impairment of assets, are significant.

Samuel received a B.S. in Accounting from St. Joseph's University and is a frequent speaker for the Institute of Internal Auditors, Institute of Management Accountants, and numerous State CPA Societies. Mr. Monastra is an ardent supporter of the Arts & Sciences; is a member of the Theatre Alliance of Greater Philadelphia, Economy League of Greater Philadelphia, and Catholic Philopatrian Literary Institute.