

Uliana Ekman, CMA, CFM

A native of Russia, Uliana Ekman started her career in management accounting at the Coca-Cola Company in Moscow where she was responsible for cost accounting of the soft drink producer and later for financial analysis of the performance of all twelve Coca-Cola plants in Russia. After graduating from the American Institute of Business and Economics in Moscow and receiving an MBA, Uliana enrolled into the IMA program for CMA and CFM certification. In 2001 Uliana and her husband moved to the States, she earned the CMA and CFM designations and accepted the position of accountant at Aker Philadelphia Shipyard.

In 2004 Uliana was appointed as Project Controller with responsibility on budget, forecasting, cost management and control of commercial ship construction. She is a key player in strategic planning and recommendations, management reviews, decision analyses and cost efficiency improvement programs.