

Hubert D. Glover, CRMA, CGMA, CRISC, CIA, CMA, CPA, Ph.D.

Dr. Glover is on the faculty at Drexel University LeBow College of Business as a Clinical Associate Professor and Dean's Fellow where he teaches both graduate and undergraduate students with particular specialty in the area of IFRS along with supporting the College's AACSB Accreditation efforts. He is also working on various initiatives with Executive Education to provide customized courses to corporate clients.

Dr. Glover has more than 35 years of experience in management and leadership. This includes both the private sectors where his leadership roles included tenure as a CEO of a joint venture with Shell Oil and as a CEO for a subsidiary of PricewaterhouseCoopers. Dr. Glover's leadership portfolio also included the public sectors serving as the chair of the accounting department for the School of Business at Howard University (both accredited by the AACSB) and leading small businesses to provide services for major federal agencies such as DOE and NASA

Dr. Glover also serves as chair of the Student and Academic Subcommittee committee for ISACA the global IT organization (www.isaca.org) and member of the Board of Trustees for the Financial Executives Research Foundation (www.financialexecutives.org). He is completing a three-year term on the Finance Committee for the American Accounting Association (AAA) (<http://aaahq.org/>) and will begin a term of service for the Professionalism and Ethics Committee.

He also served service on the Blue Ribbon Panel for Private Company Standard Setting (AICPA/FAF/NASBA) which presented its recommendations to FAF and led to the Private Company Council formation. Dr. Glover formerly served on the Boards of Directors for the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) (www.imanet.org) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) (www.aicpa.org). As part of his role on the BOD for the IMA he served on their COSO committee which helped update the Internal Control Framework which goes into effect in 2015. Dr. Glover also served as the Chair of Audit Committee for a publicly traded company, Modavox (www.modavox.com) from 2003 to 2008 and for the Emmaus Services for the Aging (www.emmausservices.org) from 2007 to 2009.

Dr. Glover also serves as a co-founder of REDE Inc. (www.redeinc.com) established in 1998 and provides institutional support and consulting services to federal agencies including NASA, USDA, Commerce, EPA and Department of Energy. REDE has an employee base of more than 200 employees providing institutional support services throughout the U.S.

Dr. Glover has written more than 50 articles for trade publications, professional organizations and academic journals in the areas of organizational change, auditing and business education.

Dr. Glover has earned the following professional distinctions: Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Management Accountant (CMA), Certified Information Systems and Control (CRISC), Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) and Certification in Risk Management Assessment (CRMA).

Dr. Glover also recently co-authored a leadership book, Giraffes of Technology—The Making of a 21st Century Leader www.giraffesoftechnology.com and <http://www.lebow.drexel.edu/news/college/Taking-cues-from-Bill-Cosby>

Dr. Glover speaks on the value of ISACA and IT Knowledge
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OM7zRugO7t8&feature=youtube_gdata_playe r

Dr. Glover coordinates healthcare session with CFOs
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dfWwXT-SRv8>