

Joe Barkley

Joseph R. Barkley, the Facilitator for this IMA Program on Conflict Management, is the Director of then Financial Leadership Practice for Academy Leadership, LLC. Joe is an adjunct instructor in the School of Business Administration at Holy Family University in Philadelphia, and for Bucks County Community College. He teaches Corporation Finance; International Business; Mergers and Acquisitions, Diversity, and Investments. He has held senior financial management positions at Chase; CIGNA; Swiss RE American Express, and American International Group. He is an experienced leader and manager of financial functions in a variety of environments including Information Technology, Financial Service, Facilities Management and Retail Banking. He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy and holds a MBA from Scranton University.