

Professor Megan Marley graduated from Widener University with her B.S. in Accounting in May 1998, and with her Master's in Tax in December 1999. She began her career in Public Accounting at Ernst & Young, LLP, and spent the next 15 years working in Public Accounting specializing in Taxation. She began adjunct teaching at Widener University, at the Graduate level, in May 2013. Currently she is teaching introductory Accounting classes as well as Graduate level Taxation. In addition to teaching she is an advisor to Accounting students, and Faculty Advisor to both Beta Alpha Psi, and Beta Gamma Sigma.

Megan can be contacted at mmmarley@mail.widener.edu. Telephone Number 610-499-1173