

Timothy Reddick

Director of Fraud and Special Investigations

City of Philadelphia

Tim Reddick has years of experience in security, law enforcement, investigations and auditing. He has over 15 years in international investigations and spent 4 years in Counter-drug operations with the USAF Office of Special Investigations. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, has a MS degree in Criminology from Florida State University, is Board Certified in both Security Management and Investigations and is a Certified Fraud Examiner. Tim serves on the ASIS International Investigations Council and was selected by ASIS for the Professional Certification Board's International Award of Excellence in 2007. He was also awarded the Certified Fraud Examiner of the Year for 2011. He is currently the Director of Fraud and Special Investigations for the City of Philadelphia in the Controller's Office.